

SMALL GROUP CURRICULUM

Sermon: Romans 14:22–23	November 15, 2026

Group Discussion Questions

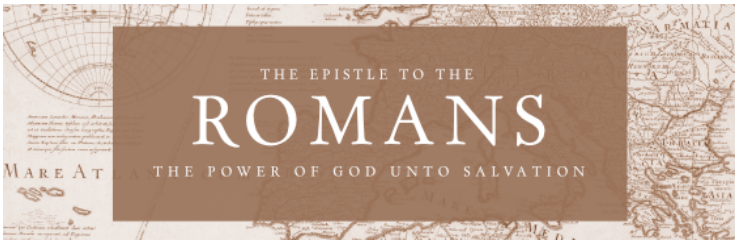

1. How did the Holy Spirit speak to you through the teaching and bible passage this week?

2. What does Paul mean by “faith” in verse 22?

3. Why are we sometimes tempted to turn minor issues into major issues? What motivates us to insist that others agree with us on matters of personal conviction?

4. How can we balance having strong convictions about minor issues without becoming obtrusive? How can we discuss our convictions with other Christians without making them feel pressured to adopt our position?

5. How would you define Christian liberty? What are some examples of areas where Christians have liberty?

6. Why might someone with a more restrictive conscience struggle to appreciate the Christian liberty of others?

7. What does Paul mean when he speaks of “doubts” and “condemnation” in verse 23?

8. What are some ways Christians might pressure one another into doing things that violate their consciences?

9. How should God’s patience with us motivate us to be patient with other Christians who hold different convictions than we do on minor issues?

Application Question:
Are there any areas where you are tempted to judge or look down on other Christians because they do not share you convictions?
