Group Discussion Questions

1. How did the Holy Spirit speak to you through the sermon and the Bible study this week?
2. What does it mean that a tree is known by its fruits (v. 33)? What does this teach us about the relationship between our hearts and words/actions?
3. What do our words reveal about us? What are some other passages you find helpful and/or convincing related to our words?
4. What kinds of words are indicative of a good heart? What kinds of words are indicative of an evil heart?
5. What do our words indicate about our eternity? What does it mean that our words either justify us or condemn us? How do we reconcile this with the gospel which teaches us that we are justified by faith alone in Christ?
